

Business Ethics: Expectations and Disappointments

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 30 June 2011 03:23 -

This inaugural conference of the Australasian Business Ethics Network will provide an opportunity for academics, students and practitioners from Australia, New Zealand, the Pacific region and beyond, to discuss contemporary issues in business ethics practice, research and/or teaching. The conference will run from Friday morning through Saturday afternoon.

More information about the conference and call for papers can be found at World Conference Calendar under the category of Ethics. Or directly here: Business Ethics: Expectations and Disappointments

.