

Fahrenheit 9/11

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 10 January 2008 19:21 - Last Updated Tuesday, 01 July 2008 17:40

Michael Moore (2004) Fahrenheit 9/11 (DVD)

In the most provocative film of the year, Academy Award-winner Michael Moore presents a searing examination of the role played by greed and oil in the wake of the tragic events of 9/11. From Academy-Award winning director Michael Moore (Bowling for Columbine). WINNER, Palme D'Or Award at the Cannes Film Festival, BEST PICTURE.

DVD features:

- * "The Release of Fahrenheit 9/11" featurette
- * "Iraq, Pre-War" featurette: The people of Iraq on the eve of invasion
- * "Homeland security, Miami style" featurette: Footage of the old men who patrol the Florida coast looking for terrorists as part of the homeland security plan

- * "Outside Abu Ghraib Prison"
- * Eyewitness account from Samara, Iraq
- * "Lila, D.C.": Lila Lipscomb at the Washington, D.C. premiere
- * Arab-American comedians: Their acts and experiences after 9/11
- * Extended interview: More with Abdul Henderson
- * "Condi 9/11": Condoleezza Rice's 9/11 Commission testimony
- * "Bush Rose Garden": George W. Bush's full press briefing after 9/11 Commission appearance